SOUTH COAST COLOUR

THE South Coast becomes a kaleidoscope of colour as the leaves of the New Forest transform into red and golden hues, pigs are allowed out for pannage (feeding in the woods) and pubs start lighting their roaring log fires.

The annual Arts By The Sea festival kicks off with a fiery, torch-lit parade through Bournemouth on October 8.

And the Isle of Wight becomes the Isle of Light as the autumn night sky reveals the Milky Way in all its iridescent glory and vivid illuminations deck the woods at Blackgang Chine and Robin Hill.

Not forgetting the guided explorations of the Isle of Wight Autumn Walking Weekend, from October 21 to 24. Stay with Warner Leisure Hotels on the Isle of Wight, or Oceana Hotels in Bournemouth.
